Kent's Korner - Finding Strength in Faith: Trusting God in All Circumstances

In times of uncertainty and challenge, it's easy to feel overwhelmed. However, as believers, we are reminded through Scripture that our strength comes not from our own abilities but from the Lord. In the book of Isaiah, we are reassured: "But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." (Isaiah 40:31, NIV). This beautiful promise reminds us that, no matter what we face, God is our source of endurance and strength.

In the midst of struggles, it's essential to remember that God's timing and His plans are always perfect. As we go through trials, let us hold onto the truth that God is always with us, guiding us, and working things for our good. "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28, NIV). When we trust in His plan, we can find peace, knowing that He is always faithful to fulfill His promises.

As God's people, let's continue to uplift one another, encouraging each other with the Word of God. "Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25, NIV). Our fellowship is a vital part of our spiritual journey, and we are called to support each other in faith and love, knowing that God will see us through every season.

Here are 7 things we can do that will help us when we're struggling in our faith: 1) seek truth in Scripture (John 8:32), 2) confess unbelief (Mark 9:24), 3) share your concerns with fellow believers (Philemon 1:6), 4) spend regular time with God (Mark 1:35), 5) look for things to be grateful for (1 Thess. 5:16-18), 6) walk in the Spirit (John 14:26), and 7) wait on the Lord (Psalm 27:14)

In every moment, let us remember to fix our eyes on Jesus, our sure hope and refuge. Trusting in Him will not only bring us peace, but also fill us with the strength to overcome any challenge. May we continue to seek Him first and live in the light of His Word.
